Seventeenth Sunday

in Ordinary Time

We begin our Jubilee Year on Tuesday:

The Jubilee Is A Special Year of Grace.

We begin our Golden Jubilee with
The Special 'Bread of Life' Retreat

Every three years we get to make a very special Eucharistic retreat with the Lord. Because St. Mark's Gospel is very short, we enhance it with readings from the Bread of Life Discourse, the sixth Chapter of St. John's Gospel. We pick up from last week:

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while" ... and he began to teach them many things.

So this week, I have invited our own Father Samuel Aliba to teach us on the Eucharist:

"The Gospel reading this weekend marks the beginning of a five Sunday series where our Gospel would be read from the Gospel of John.

"Hence, we would be taking a break from Mark's gospel and focus on the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John. This sixth chapter of John's Gospel is known in scriptural studies as the Bread of Life Discourse.

"The discourse begins with the miracle of the multiplication of loaves where Jesus multiplied five barley loaves and two fish to feed over five thousand people. Eventually, the miracle attracted bigger followership to Jesus.

"The people began to follow Jesus as means to satisfy their physical hunger for food. However, Jesus told them to rather aspire to something higher than physical satisfaction saying:

"Do not work for food that perishes but for food that endures for eternal life which the Son of Man will you"

(John 6:27).

"Consequently, His interaction with the crowd set the tone for Jesus to reveal himself as the bread of life. It also served as a teaching moment for Him to give a deep and profound teaching on the Eucharist as the Bread of life which nourishes and strengthens us on our pilgrim journey towards heaven, just as the manna sustained the Israelites in the wilderness for forty years while they journeyed to the promised land. It is from these scriptural teachings on the Eucharist that the Church draws and expounds its doctrine on the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Christ together with his soul and divinity under the appearance of bread and wine (Confer Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 1374).

"Friends in Christ, as we partake of the body and blood of Christ in each and every mass, let's remember to do so with a spirit of thanksgiving especially in line with the fact that the term Eucharist means Thanksgiving. "It is a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father, a blessing by which the Church expresses her gratitude to God for all His benefits, for all that He has accomplished through creation, redemption and sanctification" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, nos. 1360).

"As we celebrate and receive the Eucharist with hearts full of thanks, let us also allow the grace that flows from the sacrament to lead us to a deeper knowledge and love of God and His Church."

THANK YOU

And Moses struck the rock with his staff and water poured forth.
Well, the water drive at Blessed Sacrament is not in the Bible, but there is something special about the response of our community to the needs of the poor and disadvantaged helped by the water you have given them. We collected 243 cases of water, 8080 bottles of water total that were given to St. Vincent de Paul and St. Mary's Foodbank.

Thank you again for your generosity.

"Follow the great saint as he rises from his reckless days as a youth to his accomplishments as a renowned but dissolute orator. ## Church Veils

It has been a long tradition in the Catholic Church to "veil" or "protect" anything that is "holy". The tradition of the Church is to veil the tabernacle, which is the Holy of Holies. God chose a woman to bring Redemption into the world. Jesus could have come into the world in many other ways, but it was through Our Blessed Mother. Our Lady was veiled for the same reason that we veil. The beautiful job of cooperating with God to bring precious life into the world makes us "holy". Even women who never physically bring life into the world, still bring souls to Christ by their maternal calling to love and nurture souls as only a woman can. When you go to spend time with Our Lord and put your veil on your head, you will find it so much easier to pray!

You have made your own little private place to be alone with God.
