PSALM 19

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me." -Mk 9:38-39

Pastor's Letter:

Sept 29, 2024

Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, Jesus speaks to us, His disciples, of avoiding scandal, which causes “the little ones who believe in Him,” to sin.

We often think that scandal is something of which we are not capable; scandal seems to be something outside of us, those “big, public sins” which appear on TV news.

Jesus speaks to His disciples, you and me, who are loved by Him. Who are “the little ones who believe in Him”? They are our brothers and sisters who are “smaller” than we are, whose faith in Jesus is developing.

These can be converts to our Faith; they can be our own children or grandchildren, They may even be our parents, spouse, friends, neighbors or someone we encounter at work or school or in the store.

“Sin is an offense against reason, truth, and right conscience; it is failure in genuine love for God and neighbor caused by a perverse attachment to certain goods. It wounds the nature of man, injures human solidarity. It has been defined as ‘an utterance, a deed, or a desire contrary to the eternal law’”

(Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1849).

“This obedience is not always easy. As a result of that mysterious original sin, committed at the prompting of Satan, the one who is "a liar and the father of lies" (Jn 8:44), man is constantly tempted to turn his gaze away from the living and true God in order to direct it towards idols (1 Thes 1:9), exchanging “the truth about God for a lie” (Rom 1:25).

It is in the saving Cross of Jesus, in the gift of the Holy Spirit, in the Sacraments which flow forth from the pierced side of the Redeemer

(cf. Jn 19:34), that believers find the grace and the strength always to keep God's holy law, even amid the gravest of hardships”

(Pope John Paul II, Veritatis Splendor, No.103).

“The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart” (Ps 19).

JUBILEE BOOK

Dear Parishioners,

The Book Crew is pleased, actually closer to ecstatic, to announce that we will begin distributing the 50th Gala Anniversary Commemorative Book starting on the weekend of October 19th and 20th. There will be tables in the courtyard at the north and south entrances. It is our fond wish that you will enjoy and treasure the book as much as the book team has felt honored and privileged to work on this project.

Now for some really good news! Fr. Kilian has generously offered to provide one free copy of the book to each parish household. We hope the book will be a timeless gift to our parish family. Order forms will be available for families who want to order additional copies, what a great Christmas gift that would be.

As we have mentioned before, it is simply not possible to tell the entire history of the parish in one book. The book team is in discussion as to how to continue this project beyond the book. As always, we encourage your input. Please email us at Bsc50thjble@gmail.com with any thoughts, suggestions, questions, and/or stories.

Peace and Blessings, The Jubilee Book Team

As part of the US Bishops October Catholic Mental Health Campaign, we will be offering Whole Hearted, a free parish-based trauma awareness program FOR ALL adults. Published by Catholic Charities USA, Whole Hearted provides information about trauma and helps you privately reflect on your own experience.

Trauma is defined as a disruption of one's normal physical, mental, emotional or social ability due to big, small, ordinary or extraordinary experiences or situations.

Though we will gather in community, Whole Hearted is not a support group nor is it a clinical resource. It is "quiet" program that consists mainly of private journal exercises and short, small group discussions for those who wish to briefly share their own experiences.

All participants receive a free Whole Hearted journal, which:

- Provides sound mental health information on trauma
- Integrates our Catholic spirituality
- Enables private reflection on your personal responses to trauma
- Introduces practices that can help you and/or loved ones move forward
