Thirtieth
Sunday
in Ordinary Time

“Master, I Want To See.”

These famous words of Bartimaeus, the Blind Man of Jericho, ring in our ears today. We all want to know the truth.

Jesus is The Way, The Truth and The Life.

We are so often blinded by the world. We are blinded by lies and hate. The world wants us to be silent. We must be hopeful and excited about calling out to God in prayer. We are all blind beggars calling out to God all the more.

We cannot and must not stay silent.

We all want to see, literally and spiritually.

“Take courage; get up,
Jesus is calling you.”

We must be excited and enthusiastic about being called by Jesus. Take courage and stand up to evil and say no to laws that will ruin and destroy lives.

Jesus was going to Jerusalem. That road leads to The Cross. The Cross leads to Resurrection and to Eternal Life. I will follow you on the way to Heaven. I will not leave you and I will not take the wrong road which leads to perdition.

We begin an Election Novena on Sunday.

You can find the prayers online at:

www.praymorenovenas.com/election-novena and Volunteers.

The Catechism of The Catholic Church (CCC) helps us to learn Church's very clear teachings on abortion:

2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you.

Psalm 139

The full statements are in paragraphs 2270 through 2275. Look them up online or in your personal catechism. Make sure you know what Proposition 139 states—and what all of the Propositions say—before you vote.

Jesus says: “Let your ‘Yes’ mean ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No’ mean ‘No.’ Anything more is from the evil one” (Matthew 5:37).

As some of you may know, I am part of amazing healing teams, men and women who work on Rachel's Vineyard and Grief To Grace retreats right here in the Diocese of Phoenix. The healing journey uses creative “Living Scripture Exercises,” and rituals which engage the mind, body, and soul.

We use blind Bartimaeus as a great example of God's healing and compassion.

Written by Dr. Theresa Burke, Rachel's Vineyard is the largest post abortion ministry in the world. Her healing programs offer a unique sensory based treatment which integrates emotional, psychological and spiritual dimensions. These retreats help other women

"As long as we live, they too will live; for they are part of us – a part of our lives, our beings, our thoughts."

Mass of Remembrance

Each year, on All Souls day in the month of November, we gather for our Annual Mass of Remembrance. All are welcome to join us and pray for all their beloved dead. This well attended liturgy allows us once again to mourn our loss with others who are also grieving. Together we look with hope to what our loved ones have gained and seek strength and comfort as we continue our own journey.
